

FREE MONEY: Outside Scholarship FAQs

- ★ What are “outside scholarships?” Private sources of financial aid.
- ★ How can I get one? Most require an application – separate from FAFSA – and essay(s).
- ★ Who gives them? Offered by national corporations/institutions, local businesses, community-based organizations, and private foundations.
- ★ When are they due? Deadlines vary by scholarship – check early and often during your college-search process.
- ★ Where can I use them? Most can be applied to any school, but some can only be used for college(s) in a specific location (e.g. region, state)
- ★ Why should I care? Scholarships are an excellent supplemental source of aid to cover remaining costs after financial aid from your school.

SCHOLARSHIP SEARCH TIPS

- ★ Assemble the Pieces
  - Two or more recommendation letters: ask adults (non-family) who know you well: teachers, counselors, coaches, program and work supervisors. REMEMBER: recommendations can typically be used for multiple scholarships.
  - OFFICIAL high school transcript.
  - Print scholarship applications as you find them – save time when you’re ready to apply.
- ★ Search Local Scholarships First
  - Find scholarships from your city, state or region.
  - Ask around: Your school, neighborhood, community organization, employer, or place of worship may have scholarships that they sponsor each year.
- ★ Find Scholarships to Fit You
  - Do you qualify to apply: Check requirements for GPA, ethnicity, neighborhood of residence, family income, and leadership or volunteer experience.
- ★ Represent Yourself Well
  - Highlight your strengths, achievements, goals, and challenges you have overcome.
  - Read scholarship directions very carefully: Turn in everything ON TIME.
  - Applications should be typed or very neatly written in pen – NOT crumpled, smudged, or food-stained.
